

There are several hotels in the central Ho Chi Minh City where they offer good services. Hotels in the central Saigon enable you to reach your destination. Also, the hotels offer food so that you don't have to look for it anywhere inside the hotel. The Hotels offer their food at affordable rates than the ones at the restaurants for example in a 3-star restaurant you may pay £119 while in a 2-star hotel you will have to pay $20.

Travel and travel links

Saigon is a place where there is so many form of transport which you may need in order to rich your destination. For example, you can use the following for transportation.

By road

In central Ho Chi Minh buses are accessible to travel around. The buses are the most sufficient means of transport which are less expensive. The buses operate throughout the 24 hours and they have a flat fare rate throughout of $1.30 with a prepay Oyster card and $2.20 if you are paying by cash. The travel cards are also valued and can be used in buses.

By Railway

Travelling by train is the fastest way of travelling in the central Ho Chi Minh.

By Air

There are so many airports in London whereby you can use airplanes to get to one place to another. This is the most expensive form of transport compared to the rest but you can get Vietnam visa on arrival if traveling by air.

Safety

Ho Chi Minh is one of the safest cities in Vietnam and even the whole world. There is a good security in the city where by you can be well protected and have a nice time with your family. You will always be in a good company in the city whenever you are travelling from one place to another as there is a lot of security in the city. As the Olympics this year will be in Ho Chi Minh, the security will be improved and tighten all over therefore there will be no need for one to worry about your safety as long as you stay away from unnecessary danger.

Weather

The weather is conducive and friendly. Ho Chi Minh is the modest city of Vietnam in the Kit is the leading global city with activities such as entertainment, education, fashions, healthcare and so many others.

Conclusion

I have therefore concluded that if you are interested to come and stay at hotels in Ho Chi Minh for the Olympics in Vietnam, you should not hesitate or have fear of anything. According to my views you should look for a hotel in the central London so as to avoid spending a lot of cash. I would encourage you to use buses as a form of transport due to it's the cheapest and affordable to anyone. I would also like to advice you that for fastest means of transport you can use train to get you anywhere in the city as it is the fastest compared to the buses. You can also travel by means of air using the airplanes but it might be too expensive for one as you might require frequent movement. There travel by road and live in nearby hotels.
